DID YOU KNOW? During Pope Leo's pastoral visit to Spain in recent days, over 1.2 million people attended one event, 600,000 another, and 80,000 a diocesan event. He addressed the Spanish Parliament and received a 10 minute standing ovation! Deo gratias!

DID YOU KNOW? Women hold some of the highest administrative and executive positions in the Vatican, actively directing government operations, managing the Holy See's massive media apparatus, and heading departments. (called 'Dicasteries') The Vatican's most prominent female leaders and executives include:

Dicastery for Communication: Pope Leo XIV appointed María Montserrat Alvarado (formerly of EWTN News) as Prefect. She is the first laywoman to head this Vatican department.

Vatican City Governorate: Sister Raffaella Petrini serves as the President of the Governorate, effectively functioning as the governor of the Vatican City State. In this role, she oversees daily operations, the police force, and the territory's infrastructure.

Dicastery for Institutes of Consecrated Life: Sister Simona Brambilla made history as the first woman ever to head a major Vatican dicastery.

Vatican Museums: Barbara Jatta has directed the world-renowned museums since her historic appointment in 2016, overseeing vast artistic collections and operations.

Council for the Economy: Charlotte Kreuter-Kirchof serves as the Deputy Coordinator, holding immense sway over Vatican finances.

Synod of Bishops: Sister Nathalie Becquart serves as under-secretary of the Synod, thus becoming the first woman to hold full voting rights in this deliberative body.

LEDBURY TREAT: 6pm (after 5pm Mass) Sat.19th Sept: Strawberries & Prosecco!

CATENIANS Sunday 5th July at St Wulstans - Mass for Catenian brothers and their families.

DAY FOR LIFE takes place this year on Sunday 21st June.

WE BELIEVE FESTIVAL The WeBelieve Festival brings thousands together to encounter Christ in His Church. It's an unmissable opportunity to discover the traditions and charisms that flow through the Church, to grow in authentic community, and to encounter the transforming love of God.
Join us from Friday 24 - Monday 27 July at the historic and beautiful setting of St Mary's College, Oscott for a feast of the True, the Good and the Beautiful. Last year more than 2,000 Catholics gathered in the grounds for the first-ever WeBelieve Festival, celebrating Catholic life and faith. The event is hosted by St Mary's College, Oscott and the Guild of Our Lady of Ransom.The Archbishops of Cardiff AND Birmingham will take part.
