NINETY YEARS OF THE RED BOX: MISSIO AND THE MILL HILL MISSIONARIES

In England and Wales, this year marks 90 years of a special partnership between Missio and the Mill Hill Missionaries, united through the Red Box. It is a powerful reminder that God is at work through hundreds of thousands of missionaries living within communities from Malawi to Myanmar, and Pakistan to Peru.

As many know, the Red Box has been a familiar in Catholic homes across England and Wales. More than a collection box, it is a symbol of faith, hope and love – uniting the vision of Blessed Pauline Jaricot and the missionary initiative of Mill Hill Missionary, Fr Thomas Jackson.

SECOND COLLECTION AT ALL MASSES THIS WEEKEND: 'PETER'S PENCE'

The Peter's Pence Collection is an annual worldwide papal collection that takes place around the Solemnity of Saints Peter and Paul. Funds are sent directly to the Holy See to support the Pope's universal ministry and provide emergency humanitarian assistance to victims of war, oppression, and natural disasters. The custom dates back to 9th-century Anglo-Saxon England, where King Alfred the Great collected a "pence" from landowners to support the Pope.
