Scripture Readings for Sunday 13th September 2020

24th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME.

Ecclesiasticus 27:30 to 28:7 — Both the first reading and Gospel invite us to be merciful and forgiving to each other, as God is towards us. If we nurse anger, how can we expect compassion?

Romans 14:7-9 — Paul tells us the good news that whether alive or dead, we belong to the Lord.

Matthew 18:21-35 — The Gospel has a sting in the tail: if we fail in forgiveness, we risk being judged according to our own standards.

Details of this week-end's Masses

Saturday 5.00pm Zoom Mass - celebrated via Zoom (although hosted by the parish, a chapel at Downside rather than the Priest's House in Malvern will be used). The link will be emailed as usual by Tim Naylor.

Sunday 10.30am - celebrated in the church by Dom Patrick Lubo from Belmont Abbey. There is no need to let Claire Bailey know as we've never got too close to the 40 allowed. However the Steward will still be required to record you as you enter the church for 'Track & Trace' purposes.

Experimental Social Zoom meeting

On Wednesday we had a relaxed, informal discussion with insights into various subjects. However it came to light that Wednesday was not a good day on which to arrange a Zoom meeting, therefore the next one will be arranged for Tuesday 22nd September at 4.00pm.

October Rosary Prayer Group

This will take place during the month on Sundays in the church at 10.00am before the 10.30 Mass.

PLEASE PRAY FOR: Carmel Glennie, Oscar Rasile, Christopher Kouwen, Mary Plunkett and Paul Hothersall, who have died recently, and for John Bilsborough, Andy Cooper, John Crowe, Pat Higgins, Rosemarie Kay, Andy McGowan, Pauline Mills, Peter Onions, Nicholas Ratcliff, Carol Silk, Raymond Turner and Ellen Verdult who are unwell or housebound.
